

Your subscriptions to Landcare are greatly appreciated and used to finance the Annual Farm Tree and Landcare Association registration and Insurance fees which enable the group to meet at the local school, hire a hall for events or hold community field days and working bees. Donations to the Save our Curlew captive breeding program will assist in the purchase of food for the Curlews and the installation of further breeding enclosures.

2017

Upper Spring Creek Landcare Group

Tax Invoice:

Att. Secretary

Annual Family Membership Subscription: $20.00 incl. gst

Judy Crocker

PO Box 2197

Bendigo DC 3554

ABN 27 715 967 332

jcroc22@gmail.com

For your convenience we accept Direct Deposit in our Bendigo Bank Account:

Upper Spring Creek Landcare Group - BSB 633-108 Account 1390 00954

Please leave your name and initials in the payment description

Name:

Property address:

Postal Address:

Telephone numbers:

Email address

For the convenience of non-financial members.

Current group activities

- Shelbourne Nature Conservation Reserve restoration to increase forest health, wildlife habitat, pest plant and animal control and reduce excessive run-off causing erosion on and off site.
- Lockwood South State Forest woodland restoration site & walking track
- Increasing quality habitat for our small population of Bush Stone-Curlews & Habitat sites Infra-red camera monitoring program
- Happy Jack Reserve Management Committee
- Bush Stone-curlew captive breeding and release program
- Increasing nest box habitat for small native mammals
- Water watch program – monitoring the health of Bullock & Spring Creeks
- Waterway protection and revegetation project support when funds are available.
- Join our Citizen Science local wild life monitoring program – Curlews, Swift parrots, Tuans, Sugar gliders, Powerful Owls, Wallabies and others.
- Providing local indigenous plant lists
- Pest plant and animal control advice
- Restoration of the Lockwood Cemetery
- Restoration of public land reserves and supporting Clean-up Australia Day
- Joint environmental habitat restoration projects with the West Marong Landcare Farmers Group
- Free emailed monthly Newsletters
- Free - Subscribe & contribute to our blog – uslandcare.org.au
- Member of the Mid-Loddon Sub-Catchment Management Group Inc.- Mid Loddon Landcare Network
- Annual events calendar – environmental & social educational presentations and field days

You will be welcomed at meetings which are held at 7.30pm on the 2nd Tuesday of each month

February to November at the Lockwood South Primary School.

6.00pm 2nd Tuesday December - BBQ and Social Event at Happy Jack Reserve

Current Contacts: President Ken Laing - 5435 3823 & Secretary - Judy Crocker 5435 3412 / 0428 506 525